December 15th Program Assemblyman Nathan Fletcher

Assemblyman Nathan Fletcher, R-San Diego, took the oath of office as the new representative for the 75th Assembly District in Sacramento, pledging to work hard for his constituents in the State Capitol.

"I'm deeply honored to have the opportunity to represent the San Diego region in Sacramento and to work on behalf of my constituents," said Fletcher. "The people want solutions, and I look forward to working with Republicans and Democrats to tackle the economic challenges facing California to stimulate job growth and put Californians back to work."

Prior to his election to the State Assembly, Fletcher was a former Marine Corps Counter-Intelligence Specialist who served with distinction in Iraq fighting the War on Terror and businessman. Additionally, Fletcher is actively involved with various charities and served on the San Diego County Veterans Advisory Council, where he has proven to be a strong voice for veterans. He and his wife, Mindy, have one child.
