About the Speaker...

Terry L. Paulson, PhD

Dr. Terry Paulson is a PhD psychologist, an author, a columnist and honored professional speaker. He was selected to the National Speakers Association's prestigious CPAE Speaker Hall of Fame along with Norman Vincent Peale, Ronald Reagan and Colin Powell.

For over 30 years, Dr. Paulson has helped organizations, leaders, and teams make change work. His positive approaches and practical messages have made him in demand as a speaker all over the world for Fortune 500 companies, mid-size companies, hospitals, government agencies and associations. Meeting News picked him as a "Best Bet" speaker. The LA Times said he was a speaker with "substance and style." Business Digest called him the "Will Rogers of management consultants." He brings knowledge, enthusiasm and a unique and tasteful sense of humor to every speech he gives and every book he writes.

Dr. Paulson is the author of The Dinner: The Political Conversation your Mother Told You Never to Have. The book allows you to listen in and learn as two couples from different parties and backgrounds explore a political conversation their mother never wanted them to have. There is no name calling, just two couples trying to address issues impacting their voting decision.

Dr. Paulson is a long-time Republican who has spoken to numerous Republican groups. His political comments have been shared in USA Today, the Los Angeles Times and the Wall Street Journal. He currently is a regular op-ed columnist for the Ventura County Star. You can read his columns and add your comments columns at his PoliticalTalk Blog at <http://www.politicaltalk.org/>.

If possible, please make your reservation by Saturday, April 5th, so we can make plans for food and seating. Call Sharon Wood: (760) 741-5060.
